1. Learn from sector experts - You will be taught by staff with extensive experience who will advance your knowledge and skills to meet the expectations of the uniformed protective services sector.

2. Develop work related skills - During your programme, you will develop personal and work-related skills which will help prepare you for full-time work after you have completed college.

3. Enjoy professional surroundings Our teaching areas are kitted out with excellent equipment and resources. We enjoy relationships with many of the uniformed protective services that help support the delivery.

What will I learn? ▾

The course content will help to develop essential skills and knowledge, such as research, presentation, and report-writing. The building of confidence, through understanding and improving ability in outdoor activities, physical fitness, discipline, teamwork, and communication is a core aim. The demonstration that sensitivity and openness are equally important assets when working with diverse groups is also explored. The course will develop career aspirations, with trips to military bases, fire stations, police stations, universities, multi-day expeditions and various guest speakers from relevant industries. The opportunity to complete Gold Duke of Edinburgh to run in conjunction with the course is encouraged.

Over the two years of the course, you will cover thirteen modules which are assessed by a combination of written and practical assignments or by exams (modules in bold are examined modules):

Intrapersonal skills such as self-management, adaptability, resilience, self-monitoring, and development.

Assessment Arrangements ▾

Over the two year course you will complete compulsory assignments for the internally assessed units which could include written reports, presentations and practical demonstrations. The externally assessed units will involve formal examinations and controlled assessments.

Information and support ▾

Throughout the course you will be required to complete at least 10 hours of independent study time per week. To support you in this you will have access to lecturers via email and will be able to access support materials and resources via our virtual learning environment - Sharepoint.

As a vocational Protective Services course, you will be expected to wear appropriate sports kit for relevant units, which can be purchased from the College at an additional cost. Purchase is not compulsory, but we would expect one item of Callywith College kit to be available to wear when representing the College. There is also a refundable charge for library resources and locker key.

What will I need? ▾

You will need four GCSEs at Grade 4, to include either English Language or Literature and/or Maths. A level 2 Diploma at Merit in an appropriate subject can also be considered (plus English and/or Maths at grade 4).

Where will it take me? ▾

This qualification is intended to support progression to employment in the uniformed protective services. The shift towards increased graduate employment in the sector, for example in the police service dictates that suitable study to provide H.E options is essential.

The qualification carries UCAS points and is recognised by universities as providing the admission requirements for many relevant courses. Students can go on to study in a range of disciplines, for example:

BA (Hons) in Public Services

BA (Hons) in Policing

BA (Hons) in Criminology

BSc (Hons) in Fire and Rescue

BA (Hons) in Social Work

BA (Hons) in Sociology

LLB (Hons) in Law

However, the course also develops the individual for direct progression into employment. It provides the knowledge and understanding required to apply for a range of entry-level roles or an apprenticeship. for example:

British Army

Royal Navy/Royal Marines

Royal Air Force

The Police Service

Fire and Rescue Service

HM Revenue & Customs

HM Prison Service

Coastguard / Lifeguard

Local Authorities

Central Government

Travel & Tourism

Retail Management
